Plaintiffs,

v.

RICK PERRY, et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 2:13-cv-193 (NGR)
(Consolidated Action)

DECLARATION OF WILLIAM (BILLY) R. EDWARDS, III IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

1. My name is William (Billy) R. Edwards, III. I am over 18 years of age, of sound mind, and fully competent to make this declaration. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein and they are all true and correct.

2. I have been an attorney for 33 years. My entire career I have practiced in civil litigation with The Edwards Law Firm in Corpus Christi, Texas. See attached résumé as Exhibit A. I am Board Certified in Personal Injury Trial Law and in Civil Appellate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. I have litigated complex cases in multiple state and federal jurisdictions, at the trial and appellate levels, including cases that involved questions of statutory interpretation and constitutional law.

3. Through these experiences, I have become familiar with the demands that complex federal litigation makes upon the attorneys and equally familiar with the skills it takes to prosecute such a case from discovery, pre-trial motions, trial and appeal, to a successful completion in the United States District Court.

4. I have reviewed the declarations of the lawyers involved in this litigation. I have reviewed their resumes and vitas, and have made myself aware of their level of experience. That experience demonstrates that they are all lawyers with specialized expertise and skills.

5. I am familiar with the prevailing market rate for attorneys who litigate in the state and federal courts in and around Corpus Christi, Texas. Prevailing rates for attorneys who I describe as “senior lawyers” practicing in Corpus Christi, range from $400 to $750 per hour, and mid-level lawyer rates range from $300 to $350 per hour, and young-level lawyer at $250 to $275. This statement of rates is commensurate with a rate this Court recently found to be reasonable. Edwards v. 4JLJ, LLC, No. 2:15-CV-299, 2019 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 51051, at *7 (S.D. Tex. 2019) (for a 20-year lawyer seeking attorneys’ fees as sanctions, “The Court finds $400 per hour to be a reasonable rate, within the range of prevailing market rates.”); see also, Rodriguez v. City of Corpus Christi, No. 2:13-CV-134, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 159987, at *2 (S.D. Tex. 2016) (reference to “this Court’s previously adopted hourly rate of $450 per hour”). With respect to the range for senior lawyers, the higher end of the range is reserved for lawyers with specialized skill sets. Moreover, the same senior lawyers whose rates are $400-$450 in Corpus Christi expect up to $1,000 per hour, or more, when practicing in Houston. See N. Atl. Operating Co. v. Mike’s Worldwide, LLC, No. H-16-3685, 2018 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 115753, at *6 (S.D. Tex. 2018) (billing up to $840 per hour is customary at large firms in Houston).

6. I believe a caveat is important when comparing prevailing rates in the Corpus Christi area to the rates requested by the attorneys in this litigation: the attorneys in this litigation bring a specialized expertise in voting-rights and civil-rights cases that is not matched in Corpus Christi. This is not to say that no lawyers who practice in Corpus Christi cannot effectively participate in this kind of specialized litigation. It is to say that I’m aware of no attorney in Corpus Christi who has focused his or her professional energy and time pursuing this type of litigation in the Corpus Christi area as the attorneys in this litigation have shown. This factor makes me opine that the lawyers in this litigation are better compared to the upper ranges of the prevailing rates that belong to those attorneys who have specialized skill sets that demand the highest rates.

7. The rates requested by the attorneys whose time is the subject of the motions in this case are within the range of prevailing rates of Corpus Christi. Additionally, when the specialized expertise of the attorneys is taken into account, the requested rates are more than reasonable.

8. I have spent eight hours reviewing the pleadings, orders, time records, declarations and resumes in preparing this declaration. While I normally would request an hourly rate much higher than $450 per hour if retained to pursue litigation, a reasonable rate for my services in preparing this affidavit is $450 per hour making the reasonable and necessary fee for my services $2,700.

Further affiant sayeth not.

SIGNED on the 11th day of April, 2019.
